

Ball Tables

Spaceguard manufacture a wide range of ball transfer tables suitable for use within a large selection of industries providing an ideal multi directional materials handling solution.

We offer a square variant as standard through to fully bespoke layouts featuring both straight and bend sections or scissor lifts ideal for changing working heights or for loading and unloading products. We can also intergrate into tables as work cells or implement into larger assembly lines.

Features

- Welded construction ready for immediate use.
- Fully Bespoke solutions for any factory layout, any dimensions required.
- Special Profiles, scissor lifts, ball and roller assembly line or pneumatic lifting tables available
- Available as standalone products on either feet or lockable castors offering height adjustment
- Suitable to transport various goods weighing up to several tons.

Ball Configurations

- Industry standard ball units, 22mm diameter
- Typical load rating of up to 40kg per ball
- Pitch sizes of 52mm through to 150mm
- Diamond or Square layout available

Work Cell Solutions

- Ball tables integrated into assembly lines
- Fully bespoke design service available
- Tools, Storage, IT, Lighting & Electrics situated in ideal place for your product
- Ready for work or adopted as part of assembly system cell

Contact us

01482 363445

sales@spaceguard.co.uk

www.spaceguard.co.uk